SENATOR DONNA CAMPBELL JOINS SEN. BRIAN BIRDWELL TO AUTHOR CAMPUS PERSONAL PROTECTION ACT

AUSTIN-- Senator Donna Campbell joined Sen. Brian Birdwell in filing SB 11 today, otherwise known as the Campus Personal Protection Act. SB 11 allows licensed adults in the State of Texas to carry concealed handguns for personal protection on public university campuses. Senator Campbell's statement on SB 11 can be found below:

"I am proud to join Senator Birdwell and my conservative colleagues in the Senate in authoring this vital Second Amendment legislation. DPS statistics clearly demonstrate that concealed handgun license holders are the safest, most responsible gun owners in Texas. A CHL holder must demonstrate beyond a reasonable doubt that they are a model citizen by undergoing a fingerprint background check, passing a rigorous range proficiency and written exam, having no felony convictions or history of chemical or alcohol dependence, no known history of psychological disorders, no class A or class B misdemeanors in the past 5 years, and be current on all taxes and child support. A criminal must prove none of this. It's time to stop the idiocy of creating unsafe zones that disarm the good guys while violent offenders break the law."
