Sen. Campbell Statement on Court's Ruling Against Texas Voter ID Law

AUSTIN, TX – Last week the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals held that the 2011 Voter Identification Law requiring a photo ID to vote in Texas does not comply with portions of the Voting Rights Act. State Senator Campbell strongly disagreed with the decision and releasing the following statement:

"Confidence in the integrity of our elections is essential to a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Voter ID laws like the one Texas passed help safeguard honest elections and secure the right of every law-abiding citizen to have their ballot count. It is disappointing to see left-wing activists fight such common sense standards, and worse, for judges to throw out safeguards clearly designed to protect the democratic process and prevent voter fraud."
