Sen. Donna Campbell Applauds Governor Abbott for Calling Special Session to Include Pro-Life Issues, Property Tax Relief, and Annexation Reform

AUSTIN – State Senator Donna Campbell released the following statement after Governor Abbott’s press conference calling for a special session this afternoon:

“Time ran out on a number of issues critical to Texas families and homeowners this past legislative session. Fortunately, we have a Governor who listens to the people and has boldly provided a remedy. I commend Governor Abbott for answering the call of Texas citizens by adding annexation reform, property tax relief, and pro-life issues to a special legislative session. As I stated after the filibuster of the Texas Annexation Right-to-Vote Act, this issue is not going away. Guaranteeing Texans a voice in the annexation process will make our local governments more accountable and limit their appetite to tax, spend, and expand with no end in sight. We have the votes to end forced annexation in Texas and the people will ultimately be victorious.”
