State Senator José Menéndez Invites Public to the Last of Four Community Briefings on the 86th Legislative Session - (Special Guests listed below)

San Antonio, Texas - State Senator José Menéndez invites the Senate District 26 community to attend the last of four public briefings to provide an overview of the 86th Legislative Session. This legislative summary will include a recap of the issues discussed by lawmakers, and a wrap-up of session results.

Sen. Menéndez will be answering questions from the audience and providing handouts of his legislative initiatives. He will also ask participants to provide suggested ideas for interim charges in preparation for the next 87th legislative session taking place in 2021.

He will also have special guest speakers which include: District 118 State Representative Leo Pacheco, who will be speaking about his legislative initiatives; and City of San Antonio Census Administrator Berta Rodriguez, who will speak briefly about the 2020 Census.

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.
