Senator César J. Blanco Statement on Supreme Court Ruling In Louisiana v. Callais

“Yesterday’s decision in Louisiana v. Callais is a deeply concerning development in the ongoing effort to protect a fair and representative democracy.

At its core, this ruling risks weakening key protections of the Voting Rights Act - protections that help ensure every community has a meaningful voice, especially Black and Latino communities that have been historically underrepresented.

At a moment like this, we cannot be complacent. We must act with urgency to defend these safeguards and reaffirm a fundamental principle: our democracy is strongest when it is inclusive, representative, and accessible to all.”
