Springer Named to Six Influential Senate Committees

AUSTIN, TX - Today, State Senator Drew Springer released the following statement after receiving his Texas Senate committee appointments from Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick for the 87th Legislative Session:

"I'm honored to have the support of the hardworking Texans in Senate District 30 that sent me to the Texas Capitol to fight for our issues," said Senator Springer. "Today's committee assignments reflect the unique needs of SD30 and I appreciate Lt. Gov. Patrick recognizing the growth and opportunities in North Texas. The Committees I will be serving on will allow me to connect the concerns I've heard from folks back home to work on the necessary changes to support our small businesses, schools and families. I will continue advocating for lower taxes, safe communities and economic recovery during this legislative session. I look forward to working with my colleagues in the Senate and delivering real solutions to the great people of SD30."

Senator Springer's 2021-2022 Committee Assignments:

Senate Committee on Administration

Senate Committee on Higher Education

Senate Committee on Local Government

Senate Committee on Natural Resources & Economic Development

Senate Committee on Nominations

Senate Committee on Water, Agriculture & Rural Affairs - Vice Chair

Senator Drew Springer was sworn into the Texas Senate on January 6, 2021 after winning a special election December 19, 2020 to replace now Congressman Pat Fallon. Senate District 30 includes Archer, Clay, Collin (part), Cooke, Denton (part), Erath, Grayson, Jack, Montague, Palo Pinto, Wichita, Wise and Young counties.
